Entrance to College after Hours

Mr. S. Ursel, our busy maintenance Superintendent, has asked us to advise all staff that entry into the complex on weekends, holidays, and after 10:00 p.m. in the evenings will be from the east entrance of Building C (Administration Tower) on the Mall level. The Commissionaires will be on duty at all times during the above hours. There is also a buzzer at this entrance to call the Commissionaire.

This would not include Saturday mornings as the building is open for classes under the Evening School program. Staff traffic at other times should be quite light, but it is good to know that such provisions have been made.

Vocational Education Seminar

Under the heading "Man's Growth through Technology", a vocational education seminar will be held here at the College on Friday and Saturday, February 20 and 21, 1970. Organized by our Counselling Services Department, the seminar will provide Counsellors, Administrators, Superintendents and Teachers with first hand information about the Community College concept, the course offered at the Red River College, the changing world of work, etc.

Students and Staff of the College will be involved in the presentation and there will be ample opportunity for student-delegate interaction. Most of you have probably seen the publicity about this seminar but if you have not or want more information, see John Neufeld in the Counselling Services, Ext. 288.
The Most Important Predictions

In the last Bulletin we looked back over the years to honor (7) and remember (or forget as the case may be) certain individuals, events, or happenings! Today we look into the future! While most observers agree that any predictions beyond the 1980's are pure speculation, we are going to make some predictions right to the year 2000!

- The two most important books to be published will be the 1971 Income Tax Act (revised semi-annually thereafter) and the 1999 White Paper on Tax Reform.

- Computers are here to stay. (Predicted by IBM Model 360, serial number 1,753, 842,759,432).

- The moneyless society. (based on instant banking, instant credit, instant taxes, or instant unemployment - or any combination of these.)

- Lower prices we won't have!

- In the year 2000, we will look back to the good old days of the 60's!

Classified Ads — — —

Do you find yourself frustrated in your search for information? The problem is not the lack of it but rather the overwhelming wealth of information about everything and anything. Our Learning Resources Centre knows this dilemma and is doing something about it. A pamphlet on HOW TO SEARCH FOR INFORMATION IN THE LEARNING RESOURCES CENTRE and a booklet entitled BUSINESS REFERENCE SOURCES are available for the asking. The forward to the booklet explains the reason for both of these publications - namely to help students (and staff) to find information. The booklet, which is the first of many, describes basic reference sources of use to business students and faculty. Future booklets will cover other areas of knowledge.

Copies of this material are available at the check out desk of the Learning Resources Centre.

Parking Offenders to be Fined — — —

We have been advised that Regulation 35/68 under the Department of Public Works Act has been amended by Order in Council to include the Red River Community College. This is a Regulation respecting the parking of vehicles and gives the Commissionaires the right to ticket anyone violating this Act. The fine is $2.00 per offense with the usual procedures for follow up by summons, etc.

The Regulation is now in effect and the Administration of the College will take the necessary steps to define unauthorized parking, to put up the necessary signs, and to adequately publicize the matter. You will be kept fully posted of the progress being made.
